

News Release

DATE: July 24, 2009
MEDIA CONTACT: Cindy Klinge, Racing for Corey
Phone: (520) 909-3953

RACING FOR COREY HOSTS NINTH ANNUAL EVENT
AT THE KENTUCKY SPEEDWAY
FOR THE CHILDREN & FAMILIES OF LOUISVILLE CHAPTER OF DREAM-GRANTING ORGANIZATION, THE DREAM FACTORY

Sparta, KY—The Racing for Corey organization announced today they will host the ninth annual “Day at the Track,” Friday, July 31, 2009, from 5 to 8 p.m., at the Kentucky Speedway. KECO Coatings is the sponsor of the event. The children and families of the Louisville Chapter of the Dream Factory Inc., will serve as honorary guests. Practice day tickets are courtesy of the Kentucky Speedway.

The evening’s activities will kick-off with dinner in the concourse section under hospitality suite #50, in the Speedway’s main grandstand area. Guests will enjoy face-painting provided by the Kentucky Raceway Ministries, photo opportunities with the Firestone “Firehawk” and the Kentucky Speedway mascot “Horsepower,” a meet and greet with celebrity drivers and the evening’s track activities including the IndyCar and Firestone Indy Lights practice and qualifying sessions.

The Dream Factory Inc., is a non-profit, volunteer organization granting dreams to children with critical or chronic illnesses who are 3 through 18 years of age.

Racing for Corey is a non-profit organization designed to bring together the sport of auto racing and kids diagnosed with life-threatening illnesses. Racing for Corey’s mission is to bring awareness and support to wish-granting organizations across the country.

For more information visit, www.racingforcory.com.

###